Whilst being in need of modernisation and refurbishment, this elevated position within one of Worthing's premier roads is sure to inspire any budding DIY enthusiast who wished to put their mark on this substantial detached bungalow with double garage.

Situated in Kinfauns Drive, just around the corner from the new micro pub and occasional visit from the pizza van, this three bedroom bungalow is ideally located within this quiet cul-de-sac.

In brief the accommodation comprises entrance porch, entrance hall, double aspect lounge, three good sized bedrooms, kitchen/breakfast room, family bathroom, family shower room, front and rear gardens, double garage and off road parking.

Other benefits include scope for further improvements, gas central heating and double glazing.

Being located in Kinfauns Drive, local shops can be found nearby. The property is ideally located with good access to A24 and A27, and country walks through the South Downs National Park.

The garden is overgrown, therefore we ask any potential viewers to wear appropriate footwear (no heels or flip flops).
