KEY FEATURES

- Detached house with three bedrooms
- Spacious living and dining areas
- Well-maintained garden with pond
- Gravel driveway and separate garage
- Offers countryside views
- No onward chain

STEP INSIDE

Inside, the property welcomes you with a generous hallway leading to multiple living areas, including a spacious living room ideal for family evenings. The formal dining room provides ample space for family gatherings or entertaining guests. The kitchen features plenty of storage cabinets and a thoughtfully designed layout for ease of use. Large windows throughout the home ensure an abundance of light, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The three well-proportioned bedrooms allow for space and comfort while the bathroom is conveniently positioned for accessibility. With timber and tiled surfaces interspersed, the floors reflect both practicality and style, ensuring ease of maintenance throughout the home. Antique doors and the fire surround are from the original Harewood House adding character to the property.

STEP OUTSIDE

The exterior of the property is equally impressive, boasting a landscaped garden that combines both beauty and functionality. Established plants and trees provide a natural backdrop, while the grass area offers space for relaxation or recreation.

A gravel driveway provides convenient off-road parking and leads to a separate garage, ideal for additional storage or as a workshop. The pathways throughout the garden, along with the small pond, contribute to a peaceful outdoor retreat where one can unwind or enjoy outdoor activities. This spacious garden setup is perfect for those who appreciate gardening or love outdoor entertainment, making it an inviting space for gatherings and leisure time.
