Moss Court | City Edge

Manchester is known for its warm and outgoing locals, in contrast to other large cities which are often perceived as being less than welcoming. Not only that, but the city has a more relaxed pace than many large city centres, with easy access to green spaces where you can grab a little peace and quiet.

One of the best things about Manchester is just how easy it is to find your way around. Everything in the city centre is within walking distance; from shops and restaurants to bars, train stations and local attractions, they are all close to one another. You can very easily navigate the city on foot, but if you want to give your feet a rest, there is no shortage of regular buses, taxis and trams.
