A CENTRAL AND HIGHLY CONNECTED LOCATION WHICH RETAINS ITS VILLAGE CHARM

It is rare to find a village with so many amenities on offer, less than half an hour's drive of four such significant locations as Derby, Nottingham, Loughborough and Leicester. But Kegworth offers all this and more.

This is the ideal location for anyone craving a central location with good access to not only major centres, but a motorway and an airport – along with local village charm.

Kegworth is not a small village, but one which has retained the conviviality of a close-knit community. At its heart stands the imposing St Andrew's Church with its tall tower and needle spire. The village is also home to a library, a local history museum and a family butcher along with several shops and some excellent pubs and restaurants – everything from Jee Ja Jees Indian Restaurant to Marco Pierre White's New York Italian which is located in one of the village's four hotels.

This is an active and energetic community, with over 50 leisure and activity groups. Football, bowls, tennis and cricket clubs are located within five minutes' walk of Kegworth Gate. Long Lane Equestrian provides riding lessons, a pony club and young equestrian activities and the 50 acre Kegworth Shooting Ground is popular with clay pigeon shooters.

The Soar Valley features stunning countryside and so for something a little more relaxing, the River Soar is the perfect place to enjoy a walk or a boat trip. The beautiful gardens at Whatton House are open to the public from March to October and both the National Trust's Calke Abbey and Elvaston Castle Country Park are also just a short drive from Kegworth.

For something quite different, East Midlands Airport, which is less than four miles away, offers flights to over 80 destinations ranging from Alicante or Amsterdam to Tenerife or Wrocław. And located close to the airport is the famous motorsports and music venue, Donington Park.

For a village of fewer than 4,000 people, Kegworth has much to offer, making this a location with broad appeal.
