Location

Malvern is a picturesque spa town set at the foot of the Malvern Hills, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty renowned for its breathtaking scenery, walking trails, and natural springs. The town combines historic charm with excellent modern amenities, offering a wide range of shops, supermarkets, cafés, and restaurants, as well as a thriving arts and cultural scene centred around the renowned Malvern Theatres. Regular markets and community events further add to the town's appeal.

Families benefit from a strong choice of schools, including Malvern Parish Primary School, The Chase School, and Dyson Perrins C of E Academy. Malvern is also home to respected independent schools, such as Malvern St James and Malvern College, both of which enjoy excellent reputations nationally. Leisure opportunities are extensive. Beyond the walking and cycling offered by the Malvern Hills, the town provides leisure centres, sports clubs, and easy access to golf courses and equestrian facilities. The surrounding countryside and nearby riverside towns offer further opportunities for outdoor recreation.

Transport connections are excellent. Malvern is served by Great Malvern and Malvern Link railway stations, providing direct services to Worcester, Birmingham, Hereford, and London Paddington. By road, the town is well connected via the A449 and nearby M5 and M50 motorways, making travel across the Midlands and beyond straightforward. Birmingham International Airport can be reached in under an hour.
