The kitchen

The kitchen is a tastefully appointed space that captures modern country living. Fitted with Shaker-style units and oak work surfaces, the kitchen exudes charm and practicality. A 'Range' style oven with an extractor fan takes pride of place, while the Belfast sink adds to the traditional feel. The space benefits from an adjoining utility room with ample room for appliances and additional storage, with a stable door leading to the rear garden.

The living & dining room

The expansive L-shaped living area is the heart of the home, combining sitting, dining and cooking spaces into one harmonious setting. A bay-fronted sitting area, centred around a wood-burning stove, provides warmth and character. The dining section, bathed in natural light from French doors, opens onto the secluded rear garden, creating an ideal flow for entertaining.

The snug

Situated on the ground floor, the snug offers a cosy and versatile space that could easily serve as an office or a fifth bedroom. Located at the front of the property, this room enjoys natural light and a peaceful atmosphere, making it an ideal spot for relaxation or work.

The hallway

The welcoming hallway features stairs leading to the first floor, with doors that open to both the living areas and the ground floor bedroom. The layout is thoughtfully designed to keep the living and sleeping quarters nicely separated.

Bedroom one

Bedroom one is a spacious ground-floor retreat with views overlooking the front terrace. Flooded with natural light, this double room is well-separated from the living areas, providing a peaceful and private space. The room also features a bespoke fitted wardrobe, enhancing its functionality.

The en suite

The en suite to bedroom one is beautifully appointed, with a blend of traditional and modern elements. It features a panelled bath, a separate shower cubicle, wood panelling and wooden flooring, all of which contribute to a relaxing and luxurious atmosphere.

Bedroom two

Located on the first floor, bedroom two is a spacious double room with a cottage-like feel. The dual-aspect windows flood the room with light, offering tranquil views of the surrounding countryside, as well as built-in wardrobes enhancing the sense of space.

Bedroom three

Bedroom three, also on the first floor, is a generously sized double room that benefits from dual-aspect windows. The room is bright and airy, making it a comfortable space for rest and relaxation.

Bedroom four

The fourth bedroom, while slightly smaller, is still a good size and features a charming cottage-style window. Downlighters add a modern touch, making this a versatile room suitable for various uses.

The bathroom

The family bathroom on the first floor is tastefully styled, centring around a freestanding rolltop bath. Traditional elements like a pedestal wash basin and a radiator/towel rail combination complete the room, offering both comfort and elegance.

The garden

The garden at the rear of the property is a private oasis, designed with entertaining in mind. A paved patio extends the full width of the house, bordered by low-level walling, creating a perfect spot for outdoor dining. Beyond the patio is a small lawn, enclosed by mature hedging, offering a secluded space to relax.

The office & driveway

The property is accessed via a long driveway that sweeps up from the lane, providing ample parking and a turning area halfway up. The driveway leads directly to the house and the converted office, ensuring both convenience and privacy.

The former double garage has been thoughtfully converted into a self-contained office space. This quiet retreat is ideal for home working, providing a private and peaceful environment away from the main living areas.

Location

Treetops is nestled in the picturesque Worcestershire countryside, positioned between the charming towns of Bewdley and Cleobury Mortimer. The property enjoys a completely private setting, not overlooked by neighbours, making it an ideal country retreat. Despite its rural tranquillity, Treetops is conveniently close to local amenities and services.

The nearby village of Far Forest offers a village store, a vibrant community hall, a popular country pub/restaurant and a well-regarded primary school. Just under 5 miles away, the town of Bewdley is known for its stunning riverside setting, rich history and unique attractions like the Severn Valley Steam Railway and the West Midlands Safari Park. Treetops is also close to the Wyre Forest Nature Reserve, England's largest protected area, offering endless opportunities for outdoor activities.

For those needing to travel further afield, Worcester City is less than 15 miles away, providing excellent transport links via mainline railway stations and the motorway network.

Services

The property benefits from mains electricity and water, oil tank and septic tank.
