INTERNAL

This spacious and well presented three storey maisonette offers an abundance of character, light, and flexible accommodation throughout. Occupying three floors of a handsome period building, this impressive home benefits from its own private street entrance, three double bedrooms, two bathrooms, one of which is en-suite, and a bright west facing living room—all within easy reach of excellent local amenities.

Offered with a share of the freehold, this property combines the feel of a house with the charm and elegance of a Victorian conversion, making it ideal for families, professional buyers, or those seeking a generous pied-à-terre by the coast.

LOCATION

Sackville Road is superbly positioned in one of Hove's most convenient and sought after areas. The property is within walking distance of Hove Station, making it ideal for commuters with direct links to London and Brighton. You are just a short stroll from Church Road and George Street, where an eclectic mix of independent cafes, restaurants, and shops awaits. The seafront and promenade are also close by, offering beautiful walks, cycling routes, and leisure facilities.
