For sale for the first time since 1995, 11 Helland Gardens has had only two different owners since its construction in 1989. The property sits nicely within its plot, standing high at the head of a popular cul-de-sac, where one can look across Penryn's old town, Hillhead, and the viaduct to the south, and even as far as Tremough to the west. The garden would particularly appeal to families, pet owners, or anyone wishing to enjoy varied outdoor space, which includes a sunny terrace, level patio, lawned areas, and attractive dry-stone walling separating the tiered rear garden.

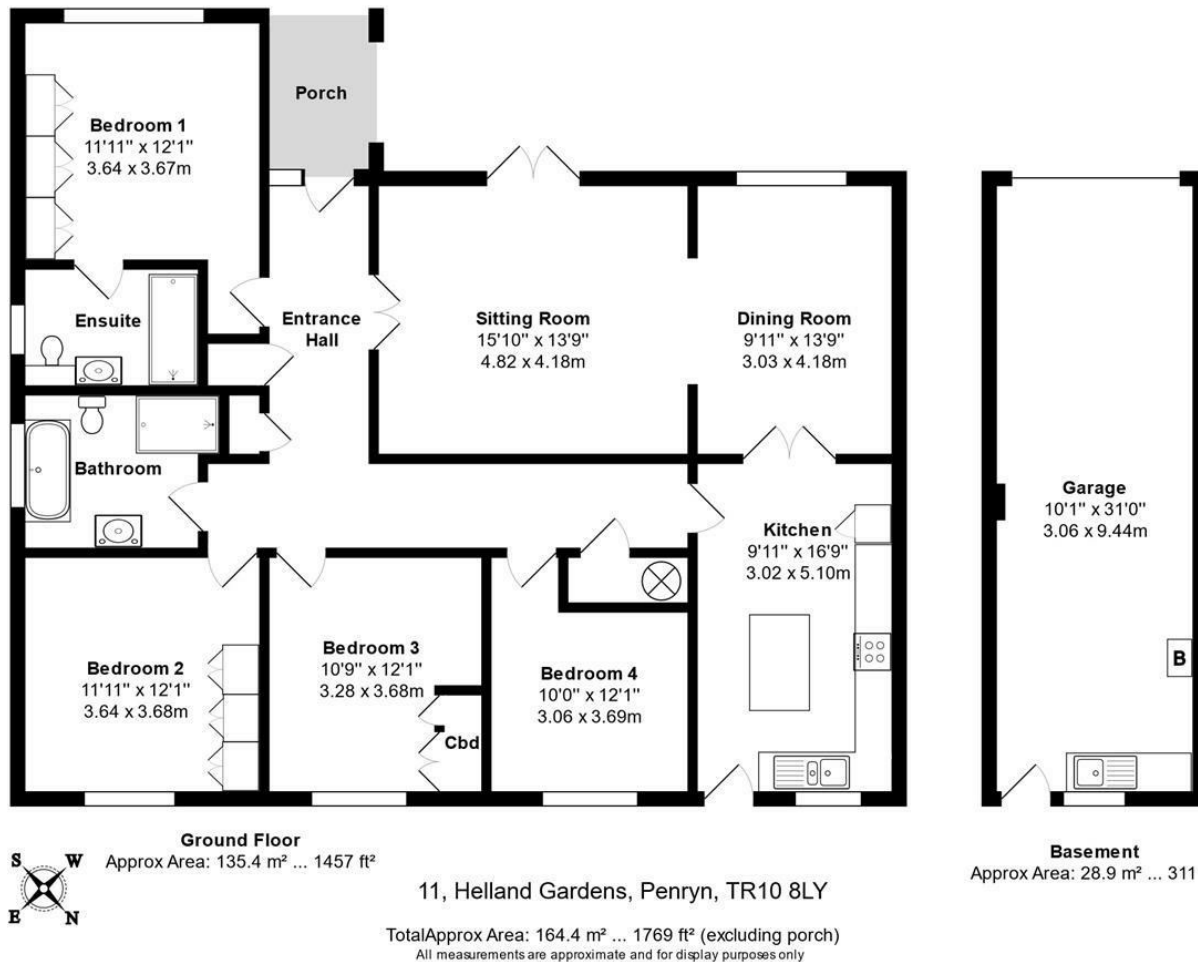

THE LOCATION

In a prominent elevated position with far-reaching views from the front, this detached home is situated within a cul-de-sac of individual properties in the popular St Gluvias area of Penryn. It offers easy access to the historic town centre and is just a short drive from Falmouth and Truro. For boating and marine enthusiasts, Mylor Harbour and Falmouth Marina are both within a five-minute drive. Additionally, there are beautiful walks nearby around Enys Estate and gardens, as well as along the riverside to Flushing village.
