Location

The Gosport Conservative Club, situated at 1 Walpole Road, Gosport (PO12 1NG), enjoys an attractive location on the pedestrian high street with access to central retail shops. This proximity ensures visitors have convenient parking options. Its position close to Gosport's high street allows easy access to various shops and essential services. Furthermore, the club is 0.77 miles from Portsmouth Harbour train station, facilitating efficient public transport connections for broader regional accessibility.

Gosport, home to around 80,000 residents year-round with an influx of 10,000 during summer, is part of the South Hampshire conurbation. Located on a peninsula west of Portsmouth Harbour, it faces the City of Portsmouth and is connected via a pedestrian ferry.

The immediate area surrounding is a mixture of residential, office and retail uses and the club benefits from an attractive frontage onto Lawrence Square (pedestrianised).

Description

The property is presented as a two-story building with a traditional brick facade complemented by symmetrical, double-glazed windows in white frames, consistent with its classic design. The ground floor includes a central entrance, bordered by expansive double-glazed windows. The roofing is pitched with clay tiles and incorporates a flat-roofed section at the rear. Externally, a paved seating area with benches is delineated by a low brick wall that establishes the property's perimeter adjacent to the pavement.

Internal Description

Upon entering the ground floor of the social club, there is an open-plan layout with the bar situated at the rear. Chairs and tables are arranged throughout the ground floor. On the right side, a wooden dance floor is present. The flooring in this area is carpeted. At the rear, the kitchen is located alongside the security area. Both men's and women's WC facilities are located at the front and rear of the property.

The upper level consists of a large snooker room equipped with three recently refurbished snooker tables. This room is designed to accommodate multiple players at once. Additionally, this floor has a committee room furnished with several desks for meetings and administrative tasks. The upper level also includes a two-bedroom flat with a separate entrance.

Planning & Conservation

The property is not listed; however, it is located in the Gosport conservation area.
