Offers Over £230,000

Traditional Semi Detached Villa which is situated in an established location amidst similar styled homes. This particular house has been well maintained and provides an excellent layout of apartments with low maintenance gardens to the front and rear.

The building itself has a low maintenance render exterior beneath a pitched, tiled roof with interlocking concrete tiles. There is a clever downstairs extension providing an additional downstairs w.c.. which is situated adjacent to large rear conservatory.

At the front the garden has a neat stone boundary wall and beyond this are low maintenance shrubs and chip stone areas.

The larger rear garden is also level and mainly slabbed with stocked borders and a wooden shed to the rear,

Internally the house extends to c.950 sq ft which offers plenty of space throughout. The property has been well maintained although buyers will probably want to modernise certain areas however there is nothing that requires urgent changes and means the house could be gradually modernised to create an excellent home.
