Description

A stunning Late Georgian property offering great versatility, ideal for use as a residential care facility, nursery school, or private residence.

Spanning three floors, the property previously operated as a 16-bed residential care home. In 2023, planning permission was granted for conversion into a six-bedroom residence, followed by approval in 2024 for use as a children’s nursery school.

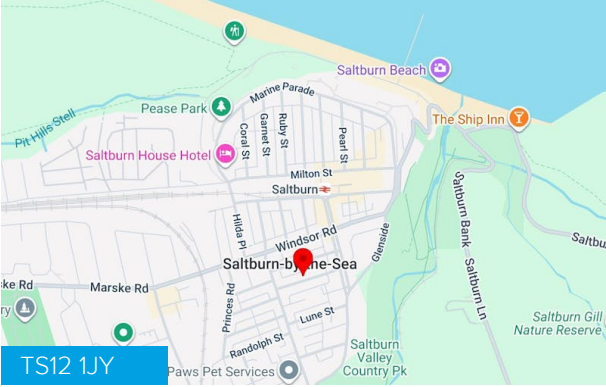

Location

Saltburn is a charming seaside town on the North Yorkshire coast, known for its breathtaking coastline and cliff views. It's famous for attractions like the Valley Gardens, Victorian pier, and cliff lift. With excellent train and road links to the A174, Saltburn serves as an ideal base for exploring the North Yorkshire coast.
