Location

Murthly is a welcoming Perthshire village surrounded by scenic countryside and woodland, offering a peaceful pace of life just a 15-minute drive from Perth. With a village shop, the award-winning Uisge restaurant and regular bus services, it's ideal for families and those seeking a semi-rural lifestyle. There is a highly regarded primary school within the village as well as private primary and secondary schools within easy reach. Murthly provides numerous cultural and sporting opportunities in the vicinity including gyms, various country pursuits, cycling, golfing and even winter sports. The River Tay and nearby walks make it perfect for nature lovers, while excellent road links ensure easy access to Perth, Blairgowrie, Dunkeld, the central belt, Edinburgh and Glasgow to the south and the Highlands to the north. There is also a train station at Dunkeld offering national rail links and bus stations within Perth. Murthly strikes a lovely balance between countryside charm and daily convenience — a prime spot to enjoy the best of both worlds.
