- Versatile layout ideal for families or creatives

This charming and deceptively spacious home in the heart of Abernethy is a true hidden gem. Brimming with character and warmth, 18 Main Street offers flexible living over two levels and benefits from a superb detached double garage to the rear, with a fully self-contained one-bedroom studio flat – ideal for guests, multigenerational living, home working or short term letting - subject to the necessary permissions.

The main house exudes period charm with a cosy yet generous lounge/dining area featuring exposed beams, wooden floors and a feature fireplace. The country-style dining kitchen overlooks the enclosed, sun-drenched and south-facing garden – a perfect retreat for entertaining. Upstairs you'll find two large double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The rear annexe is a brilliant bonus: a spacious garage below, with a bright and modern studio above, complete with kitchen, living/sleeping area, and its own shower room and private access. Externally, the enclosed garden provides a tranquil and private space ideal for al fresco dining or relaxing, and parking is available via the rear garage. There is also a secluded sun room and bar located within the garden - an ideal place to relax and unwind after the rigours of the working day. An ideal choice for those seeking something with soul, flexibility, and a strong sense of home in a peaceful village setting.
