30 Dundee Road is a charming and deceptively spacious period property offering flexible living over three beautifully presented floors. Blending traditional character with tasteful modern upgrades, this notably generous and peaceful home is perfectly suited to growing families, professionals or those seeking versatile space close to central Perth.

On the ground floor, you'll find two generously sized double bedrooms along with a stylish family bathroom, which features both a separate bath and a walk-in shower. A spacious hallway with under-stair storage provides access to the upper levels. The first floor is a fabulous social space with a modern kitchen/diner fitted with sleek units, a central breakfast island, and integrated appliances. Opposite, the cosy living room boasts ample space for both seating and dining, and benefits from a wood-burning stove—ideal for those chilly nights. A handy WC is also located on this level. Upstairs, the top floor presents a further bedroom, complete with a Velux window, built-in storage, and an adjoining bedroom/dressing room with contemporary en-suite facilities. This layout offers complete privacy and is ideal as a luxurious master level. Externally, the property enjoys a generous, enclosed garden with decking and gravelled areas—perfect for entertaining. A timber shed offers storage, and off-street parking is accessed to the rear.
