Nestled in the heart of the charming and historic village of Abernethy, 20 Main Street is a beautifully presented 2-bedroom semi-detached home offering modern comfort with traditional character. Spanning approximately 855 sq. ft., this deceptively spacious property has been tastefully upgraded and lovingly maintained, making it ideal for couples, small families or those seeking a characterful retreat.

The ground floor welcomes you with a bright hallway, leading into a stylish dining area and a galley kitchen with plentiful units and workspace. A generously sized lounge sits to the rear, bathed in natural light thanks to twin skylights and patio doors opening onto a secluded garden – a private green haven perfect for entertaining or relaxing. A sleek shower room completes the ground level. Upstairs, you'll find two spacious double bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom. The home benefits from double glazing, electric heating and tasteful décor throughout. On-street parking is available nearby, while all village amenities – including shops, cafes, school, and bus links – are just steps away.
