Guide Price £317,500

Situation and Description

This attractive development lies within the grounds of Belmont Abbey, on the southern edge of the cathedral city of Hereford. There are an extensive range of facilities nearby with a Tesco superstore at Belmont, as well as a doctors' surgery and Medical Centre. A regular nearby bus service from the A465 runs to and from the city centre which provides an excellent choice of shops, cafes and restaurants along with a mainline train station. To the south are the market towns of Monmouth and Abergavenny, and nearby there are woodland walks.

Designed specifically for the over 50's, this very quiet and unique development comprises a mix of houses and apartments arranged around very neat landscaped gardens. No. 17 is a very spacious and beautiful first floor apartment which has lovely views to the front and rear and offers versatile accommodation throughout. Well-appointed and accessed by either stairs or a lift, the apartment is ideal as a 'lock and go', or for early retirement. Features include an entry phone system, double glazing and central heating throughout, plenty of light and space, recently fitted carpets, fielded panel doors and a covered balcony overlooking the communal gardens. In addition, the apartment has its own garage and there is visitor parking nearby.

On arrival, a communal front door with secure entry system leads into a reception hall with stairs or an internal lift leading to the first floor. A front door then leads into the apartment with a wide hallway providing access to all the rooms. The sitting room offers lots of space and has a dual aspect along with glazed doors that lead out to a private covered balcony with tiled floor which has a southerly aspect and overlooks the communal gardens. The kitchen/breakfast room also offers plenty of space and also has a dual aspect. Offering a range of fitted units which incorporate a double sink, single oven, hob and extractor as well as providing space for and plumbing for other appliances. The main bedroom has a lovely outlook towards woodland and includes a range of fitted wardrobes to one wall and a very comfortable en suite shower room. There is a guest suite again with its own en suite shower room, a study and dining room either of which could be a third bedroom. All the rooms are then supported by a cloakroom and built in storage cupboards in the hall.

Outside

This development lies next to Belmont Abbey and is approached from the Abbey entrance and a road that leads to a large parking area. This very attractive development combines both houses and apartments that surround landscaped communal gardens with a large central pond that often attracts an assortment of wildlife. Pathways lead around the gardens and provide access to the frontages and include courtesy lighting at night. The apartment also then benefits from its own single garage with up and over door to the front, providing secure parking and storage space.
