This delightful cottage lies close to the village church in a cluster of other individual houses in the heart of this popular village. Local services include a primary school, public house, village shop, community centre to name but a few and there is a regular bus service to and from the cathedral city of Hereford. The city offers an extensive range of facilities including, shops, restaurants, cafes, a mainline train station and much more.

The property itself is full of character and charm and is set in delightful cottage gardens which are well stocked throughout. The accommodation is well proportioned with three bedrooms and three reception rooms and benefits from gas fired central heating, fitted carpets, and both a ground floor and first floor bathroom.

On arrival, a canopy porch and front door lead into a reception hall, with understairs storage cupboard, wall lights and door through to a comfortable and spacious sitting room. There are French doors that lead out to the sun terrace and gardens, wall lights and a brick fireplace for colder evenings. A central dining room has a secondary glazed window to the front with window seat, exposed timbering and large inglenook fireplace. A separate snug, or living room, offers a quieter space to relax and work with a small adjoining study with fitted shelving. At the rear of the cottage a good-sized kitchen/breakfast room is the main hub of the house with windows and direct access to outside, a range of fitted cupboards and drawers, built in appliances, single drainer sink and central heating boiler.

The ground floor accommodation is then supported by a useful bathroom and separate cloakroom.

The first floor is then approached by two separate staircases, with one leading from the entrance hall to a first-floor landing and then to a double bedroom, bathroom and separate dressing room, with fitted wardrobe to one wall. The second staircase leads up from the dining room to two comfortable bedrooms, both with partly vaulted ceilings and windows to the front.

Outside

Green Cottage is approached by its own driveway which provides parking for several cars and leads to a detached double garage with twin up and over doors, internal workshop, power and lighting (17'8 x 16'4 overall).
