Mow Cop, ST7 3PE

Price £550,000

Here at Carters, we are honoured to welcome to the market this magnificent, and flawlessly presented four double bedroom, detached stone cottage situated in the heart of Mow Cop, which is on the Staffordshire/Cheshire border.

Prepare to be amazed as you take a look around this impeccably presented family home, which has undergone a full renovation over recent years with no expense being spared on top quality fixtures and features. Upon entering the property through a porch/cloakroom you are then welcomed into a large entrance hall which leads off into a utility room, wet room and then the hub of the home is towards the rear. The kitchen/diner/family room is utterly breathtaking, with solid oak flooring and over-sized patio doors and windows providing stunning views out towards the Cheshire plain, perfect for watching the sunrise/sunset whilst you relax in the snug next to the log burner. The kitchen area is beautiful and benefits from a new modern cottage style kitchen with quartz worktops, porcelain floor tiles, a Belfast sink and integrated appliances. Additionally, there is a large separate living room with a log burner. Heading upstairs, there is a luxurious family bathroom which provides a four piece suite including a freestanding, roll top, claw foot bath and an oversized shower enclosure. There are also four double bedrooms to enjoy, two of which boast en-suite shower rooms, each with their own unique design.

Externally to the front, you have a wide driveway with ample off-road parking for three vehicles plus a large, detached garage for any extra storage needs. The private rear garden is simply stunning and provides the perfect entertaining space with a patio area and a lawn area to sit and soak in the spectacular views. Mow Cop is a beautiful and friendly village, only a 45-minute drive from Manchester. Famous for The Killer Mile and Mow Cop Castle, with great local schools, stunning countryside walks, lovely local pubs and tight knit community.
