Rose Cottage Crab Lane, North Muskham, Newark, NG23 6HH

Guide Price £625,000

Property Description

A large four/five bedroomed detached period cottage dating back to the 18th century tastefully extended to provide comfortable and practical living and social accommodation. Ample grounds forming a generous enclosed private plot of approximately one acre, including hard parking standing area for multiple cars, range of outbuildings and sheds providing scope for various functions. The driveway and lawned gardens have mature borders and a paddock which benefits from a number of fruit trees including apple, pear, plum, damson, sloe and cherry trees and further extends to an area of woodland. A large wood Summer House has many potential uses such as home office or play room. Stunning views over open fields which extend down to the River Trent. Ideally located in a secluded position within a popular and commutable village with an excellent village primary school, pub and award winning Indian restaurant.
