A wonderful 6 bedroom family home, with detached 2 bedroom annexe, stables and paddock. Tregaron enjoys breath-taking panoramic views, spanning Falmouth Bay to the Lizard Peninsula. Situated within easy reach of the picturesque Helford River and the vibrant, historic harbour town of Falmouth.

Spanning over 3,755 sq ft, Tregaron has been significantly extended and fully refurbished over recent years, taking full advantage of its elevated position to offer incredible views from almost every window. Flooded with natural light, the main house boasts spacious open plan living, cleverly designed to connect you with the outdoors and ever changing coastal views; whilst simultaneously providing a restful and luxuriously peaceful retreat.

Inviting and welcoming, the contemporary open plan living leads out onto sun decks which wrap around the south and west aspects of the property, perfect for alfresco dining and entertaining. There are six beautifully designed bedrooms including a fantastic master suite; 4 bathrooms, and an integral garage which provides space for boat storage or workshop space. Ample parking is available for multiple vehicles to the front of the property and mature, well stocked gardens offer year round colour and interest.

An additional detached property, 'The Neyth', is accessed via its own private driveway and offers further living space for guests and family members. This delightful 2 bedroom, 2 bathroom, first floor accommodation also benefits from truly stunning south facing views over rolling green fields down to the sea. Integral to this building, on the ground floor, is a garage / workshop space and 2 stables with a feed / tack room. The 2 acre paddock adds to the charm of this property, perfect for those who appreciate the outdoors or have equestrian interests.
