➤ IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Your wonderfully expansive lounge/diner will surely become the beating heart of your new home, totalling an impressive 200 square feet, the oversized window set ushers in lashings of natural light and frames the pleasant views of your grounds. Pale engineered hardwood runs underfoot and you have direct access to your secluded, sheltered balcony. The perfect spot to enjoy a morning coffee.

Next door your kitchen's a sleek, contemporary affair with glossy mint green worktops, matching splashbacks and white fitted cabinets. Down the hall and the bathroom's immaculately tiled from floor to ceiling, with smoky slate effect underfoot. Finally, both bedrooms are solid doubles of 100 and 130 square feet respectively, cheerfully finished with soft carpet underfoot.

Outside and it's just a five minute walk to Highams Park overground, where you can get directly to Liverpool Street in twenty three minutes, putting the City less than half a mile away door to door. Heading to the West End? Walthamstow Central is just two stops and five minutes away for a quick swap to the Victoria line.

WHAT ELSE?

- Highams Park station is surrounded by all the day to day essentials you could need, from cafe to supermarkets, pharmacies to dry cleaners, all right on your doorstep.
- With generous units in both hallways, you have a welcomingly rare amount of fitted storage for a London pad.
- Known locally as 'The Highams Park' and landscaped in the late eighteenth century by Humphry Renton (immortalised in the on site Humphry's Cafe), the open green spaces that give your new neighbourhood its name are just five minutes' walk anytime you fancy getting back to nature.
