IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Your lounge is an immediate highlight, nicely substantial at over 220 square feet, softly carpeted and finished in neutral, sandy tones. Recessed spotlights sit overhead and a twin set of large windows let in plenty of natural light. Your bedroom's just as generous, a sizeable double with floor to ceiling mirrored wardrobes. There's a large handy cupboard in the hallway, and you also have loft access, for plenty of storage.

In between your kitchen sits decked out in flagstone style vinyl underfoot, forest green cabinets and dark, quartz effect counters. Finally your bathroom's a sleek affair, finished from top to toe in vertical large format light grey tilework, with a chrome heated towel rail and smoky grey flooring. There's a five panel concertina shower screen over the tub and light up vanity cupboard above the sink. Your communal gardens are well kept and generous, plenty of space for just relaxing with a book or getting to know the neighbours.

As noted, the open green spaces of Memorial Park are just a few minutes from your front door, perfect for morning runs or evening strolls and home to tennis courts, bowls and children's playgrounds. Wandering further afield, the social hub of Chingford Mount is just half a mile on foot, home to a range of day to day amenities, bars and restaurants. Highams Park station is around a twenty minute stroll or five minute cycle, for direct twenty three minute connections to Liverpool Street.

WHAT ELSE?

- Heading to the West End? Walthamstow Central is just two stops and five minutes down from Highams Park, for a quick swap to the Victoria line.
- Your property is presented chain free, for that all important, hassle free move.
- The endlessly explorable greenery of Epping Forest is also within easy walking distance, along with the blue waters of the River Lea.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER....

"Welcome to Acorn Close, Chingford - a place I've proudly called home, and one that I know you will fall in love with just as I did. Living here has been a joy, surrounded by the vibrant community spirit that makes Chingford truly special. From the lush expanses of Epping Forest where I've enjoyed countless morning walks, to the charming Highams Park just minutes away, there is always something to explore. The local events are incredible, like the annual Chingford Village festival in June, which brings everyone together for music, food, and fun, or the family-friendly Mount festival in September, where the community spirit truly comes alive.

Beyond the events, there's so much to love about Chingford. I've always felt a great sense of connection here, whether from visiting the historic Queen Elizabeth Hunting Lodge or simply enjoying the warm neighbourhood atmosphere. This area perfectly balances the tranquility of suburban life with easy access to all the amenities London has to offer. Living in Acorn Close has been a privilege, and I'm excited to pass on this opportunity to the next owner who will undoubtedly enjoy everything this wonderful community has to offer. Acorn Close is a safe, warm, friendly environment."
