IF YOU LIVED HERE...

With its elegant gable, curved bay and rose-lined frontage, this handsome home charms from the outset, full of warmth, character and kerb appeal. Inside, the hallway sets the tone with herringbone flooring, natural wood detailing and painted stair treads. The front reception features a deep bay window and decorative fireplace, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. To the rear, a second reception flows into the conservatory, an uplifting space with French doors, a pitched glass roof and views of the greenery beyond. The open-plan kitchen/diner is bright, sociable and beautifully connected to the outdoors. South-facing windows pour sunshine across crisp cabinetry, a breakfast bar and a bank of integrated double ovens. Bifold doors open to the terrace, making hosting or unwinding a joy year-round. The garden is an exceptional highlight, basking in sunlight from dawn to dusk. A generous patio wraps around the rear of the house, ideal for al fresco dining, while a lush lawn stretches out beneath mature trees. At the far end, a raised terrace and stylish outbuilding invite evening drinks, creative projects or secluded moments of calm. Upstairs, 5 bedrooms offer flexibility for growing households or guests. The largest enjoys a wide front-facing bay and leafy views; others feature garden outlooks, built-in storage and soft natural light. The ensuite is notably spacious, while a large family bathroom includes a rainfall shower and claw-foot tub.

There's also a separate WC and a skylit study tucked between. A utility room, cloakroom and internal garage complete this carefully considered and characterful home. Tucked among expanses of open parkland and mature woodland, this neighbourhood offers a rare sense of space and tranquillity without losing its community feel. Epping Forest is quite literally on your doorstep, inviting long weekend rambles, spontaneous picnics or scenic morning runs. For a sociable pint or Sunday roast, The Royal Forest and The Kings Head are both within easy reach, characterful spots full of local charm. Tree-lined streets are dotted with attractive homes, and well-regarded schools such as Normanhurst Primary and Heathcote Secondary are conveniently close. Despite the peaceful, green surroundings, the city never feels far away—thanks to panoramic skyline views and strong local connections. Altogether, it's a setting that blends nature, neighbourhood spirit and urban access in equal, and rather rare, measure.

WHAT ELSE?

Chingford Station is just a 2-minute stroll away, making commutes into central London simple and efficient. With direct trains to Liverpool Street and connections to the Victoria Line at Walthamstow, the city is always within easy reach, ideal for work, weekend plans or spontaneous evenings out.

A WORD FROM THE OWNERS.....

"We have been here for over 30 years and have seen the kids grow up playing in the forest and attending the local schools. Over the years we have extended the property and have solar panels and a battery (on the original tariff). The south facing garden is a great place for relaxing or entertaining and there is a brick BBQ with both gas and coal options. It is a great combination of suburban living - 2 minutes to Chingford station and 25 minutes into the city - and being on the edge of Epping Forest. North Chingford retains a village feel, with plenty of independent restaurants and a good mix of shops & cafes. We will miss the place, but the call of grandchildren is strong."
