IF YOU LIVED HERE...

This house offers generous proportions throughout and a layout that lends itself well to thoughtful change, making it an exciting prospect for anyone keen to put their own stamp on a substantial home. An attached garage sits alongside the property, adding useful adaptability for storage, hobbies, or future ideas. Inside, a wide hallway gives a clear sense of the home's proportions and leads through to a long reception room where glazed doors open directly onto the garden, creating a strong connection between inside and out. Its width and depth comfortably allow for distinct living and dining areas, while also presenting the opportunity to explore opening the reception into the kitchen for a more fluid, contemporary arrangement, subject to the usual consents. The kitchen itself is set separately, with garden access and windows across multiple aspects, making it well suited to a future kitchen-dining setup that works naturally with outdoor living.

Beyond the house, the garden unfolds with real presence and maturity. Established trees and greenery frame the plot, while paved areas give structure and a clear starting point for shaping the space with zones for entertaining, planting, and quieter moments.

Upstairs, the sense of adaptability continues. The largest bedroom benefits from dual-aspect windows, another features a bay-style window, and two further bedrooms complete the accommodation. The existing bathroom, shower room, and separate WC offer the potential to be merged into one generous, beautifully composed bathroom, creating a more modern and cohesive finish to the first floor.

Highams Park has a well-established, village-like feel, with a strong sense of community and a growing independent scene. The area is known for its relaxed cafés and pubs, including favourites such as Biba & Wren, Breeze, and The Stag & Lantern Micropub, all contributing to its friendly, lived-in atmosphere. Green space is a real highlight, with Highams Park Lake providing open views and easy access into Epping Forest, where woodland paths and open landscapes offer a welcome contrast to everyday life. Together, the mix of local amenities and surrounding greenery gives Highams Park a strong sense of place.

WHAT ELSE?

Highams Park Station is within a comfortable 15-minute walk, providing direct connections into central London. Regular bus routes also run through the area, making it easy to reach neighbouring spots such as Walthamstow and Chingford, both known for their mix of shops, markets, cafés, and access to further green spaces.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT.....

"Around the corner from our E4 office are The Stag and Lantern and Vino Tap, known for their craft beers and natural wines. If you fancy a nice coffee pop into Biba & Wren Coffee Shop or pop over to Grace and Albert for anything gift or homeware related. My favourite local walk to where I live is through Epping Forest from Highams Park to Chingford Plains, ending at The Butlers Retreat.

If you fancy a bike ride The Lea Valley is expansive and offers plenty of different routes in and out of London. The area is the perfect halfway house, offering all the benefits of London but with the green space and community feel of a countryside village! I also love the variety of different architecture on offer throughout E4".
