

High Meadows

Bolton, BL7 9AS

Offers around £450,000

No chain! Boasting panoramic south-facing views and an attractive plot in the quiet, sought after location of High Meadows in Bromley Cross, this detached bungalow is already super spacious with excellent potential to build into the large loft. Every room in this property is a great size, making it a fantastic choice for family life.

A brief overview of the accommodation includes an entrance hall, open plan split level living area comprising the dining room and a large lounge with balcony, large kitchen, four double bedrooms and two bathrooms. The plot includes gardens to front and rear, a private drive and an attached garage.

Living Space

It is rare to find a property where you get such incredible, uninterrupted south-facing views while sat on your sofa! The lounge is a fabulous size and is very bright and airy due to the French doors and window surrounds pouring in an abundance of natural light. Imagine warm summer days with the doors open enjoying that desirable indoor-outdoor living – bliss. A contemporary reote controlled gas fire sits within the chimney breast, and the floor is fitted with stylish modern laminate.

A few steps in the lounge lead up to the dining area, where a sloped ceiling with Velux window and balustrade looking onto the lounge adds unique character, and of course adds another great space to satisfy the demands of family life. You could perhaps even have a desk on this upper level if you need to work from home.

Like the lounge, the kitchen is a great size, with a tiled floor, contemporary design, and a range of integrated appliances including a double oven and grill, four plate hob and extractor, dishwasher, washing machine, and dryer.

Bedrooms & Bathrooms

In keeping with the living spaces, each of the four bedrooms are doubles and they are well-proportioned with ample space for family life. Three of the four bedrooms are situated off the main hall. The fourth bedroom is accessed on a lower level with its own bathroom comprising a three-piece shower suite, which offers potential to be integrated into the bedroom as a true en-suite. Also situated off the main hall is the spacious family bathroom, featuring fully tiled walls and a three-piece suite comprising bath with shower, wash basin and WC.

Loft Conversion Potential

Since the property has a huge loft and south-facing panoramic views, it has excellent potential to be built into and converted to provide more accommodation (subject to regulations). Just imagine the views up there! Perhaps a huge master suite? Or maybe a few bedrooms which would give more living space downstairs? You decide! The loft is boarded and has a permanent staircase which is located in the second bedroom.

Outside Space

As well as the green space and drive at the front, the rear garden is a good size and a prime spot for sitting out and enjoying the views. Whether it's enjoying a drink while watching the sun set, cooking up a BBQ on the patio with family and friends, or playing with the kids on the large lawn, this garden allows it all.

Location

High Meadows is a quiet suburban spot that benefits from the best of both worlds – scenic countryside and an excellent variety of amenities on your doorstep. Ideal for family life, there's plenty of good schools in walking distance, and Bromley Cross village provides a good range of mini supermarkets, independent shops, cafes, pubs and bars.

Jumbles Country Park is just a hop skip and jump down the road. Turton Golf Club is a mere five-minute walk away, and the surrounding countryside is a playground for outdoor pursuits, from walking to running, sailing, and cycling. In addition to the idyllic countryside nearby, the surrounding village-like areas of Edgworth, Egerton, and Bradshaw together provide an even greater range of amenities.

For commuters, Bromley Cross train station is a short throw down Chapeltown Road, providing routes to Manchester and Preston, and the national motorway network can be accessed within 10 to 15 minutes.
