The best of village living

Guilden Morden is an idyllic Cambridgeshire parish, surrounded by wild meadows and ancient woodland.

Village life at Guilden Morden comes well-served with local sports clubs, a well-regarded primary school and The Three Tuns community pub providing local ales and good food, with a monthly village market. St Mary's church is a central 13th Century landmark within sight of Meadow Croft, holding weekly services alongside mother and toddler groups. For those looking to stretch their legs, local walks through nature trails and orchards provide the perfect exercise and ideal for dog walking.

Ashwell & Morden railway station lies just 3 miles away with trains into London King's Cross, Cambridge and Brighton. The A1 and M11 lie to the East and West of Guilden Morden, making travel by car easy and accessible.

Looking further afield

There's never a dull moment – discover a world of culture and charm.

The nearby market town of Royston provides a diverse range of charming independent shops, restaurants, cafés, an M&S Foodhall and Tesco Extra, as well as the renowned attraction, the Royston Cave.

The location is blessed with a number of places of interest. Imperial War Museum Duxford played a central role in some of the most significant periods of the 20th century and explores the early days of flight through to the Second World War and Cold War. Wimpole Estate lies less than 20 minutes away and is owned by the National Trust with tree climbing, nature trails and over 3,000 acres of parkland to explore.

For the more leisurely pursuits, the area provides excellent trackways for hiking and cycling and for golf enthusiasts there's a good choice of courses including the John O'Gaunt Golf Club and Cambridge Country Club with an impressive spa and health & wellness centre.

Less than half an hour's drive is the historic city of Cambridge, home to world-class educational establishments, museums, cinemas, punting on the River Cam, high street stores, the Grand Arcade and The Grafton shopping centres.
