LOCATION

Pavilion Road is a highly desirable location ideally situated on the border of Knightsbridge and Chelsea. It connects with Basil Street at its northern end and Sloane Square at its southern end. The road is conveniently located 0.2 miles from Harrods, one of the most iconic department stores in the world.

It features 19th-century stables that have been converted into attractive mews houses. The southern end of Pavilion Road is now pedestrianised, creating a pleasant environment home to a variety of cafés, artisan food shops, and independent retailers, resulting in a vibrant mix of residential and commercial spaces with a lively hub for shopping and dining.

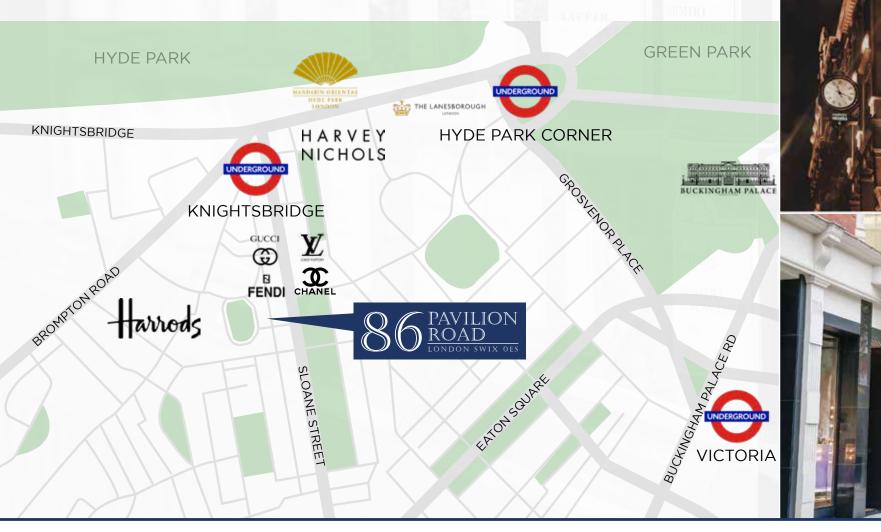

LOCAL OCCUPIERS MAP

Pavilion Road, adjacent to the prestigious Sloane Street, is a premier destination for luxury shopping, featuring brands such as Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Fendi, Chanel, and Dolce & Gabbana. It is also surrounded by five-star hotels, including the Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, Bulgari Hotel, and The Lanesborough.

The area boasts excellent transport links, with Knightsbridge (Piccadilly Line) and Sloane Square (District & Circle Lines) underground stations just an 8-minute walk (0.4 miles) away. Hyde Park Corner (Piccadilly Line) and Victoria (Victoria Line) stations are also nearby, ensuring seamless connectivity across London.

ROYAL PARKS

The Royal Parks of London are a collection of urban parks that were originally established for the recreation of the royal family, primarily for hunting. Today, these parks are managed by a charity known as The Royal Parks, which was created in 2017 to oversee close to 5,000 acres of parkland across London.

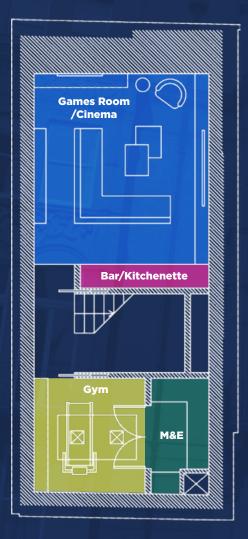

The Royal Parks—St James's Park, Green Park, Hyde Park, and Kensington Gardens—are just a stone's throw away (within a 15-minute walk) from 86 Pavilion Road, near Buckingham Palace and Kensington Palace, forming a network of London's most iconic green spaces.

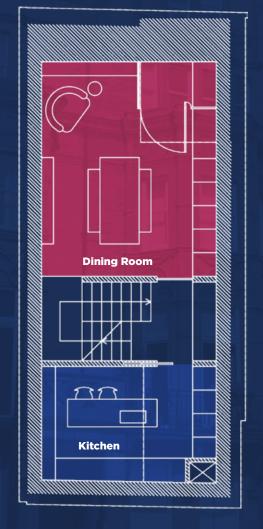

These parks offer both natural beauty and historical significance, providing a perfect setting to enjoy a moment of tranquillity amidst the city's vibrant energy.
