Guide Price

Beverley Road, Lexden

This elegant Victorian semi-detached residence is one of a rare collection of just five prominent homes built circa 1870, showcasing an eclectic mix of architectural detailing. Characterised by striking black brick diapering, contrasting white brick accents, and soft red brickwork, the property exudes timeless period charm. Signature features such as decorative bargeboards, an open front porch, and a classic canted bay window all contribute to its distinctive historic character. Internally, the home retains an abundance of original period features, lending authenticity and grandeur throughout.
