Rowan Way, Witham

Situated on a highly desirable estate in Witham, this beautifully refurbished property is ideally located within walking distance of the train station, local playing fields, and a variety of amenities.

The home benefits from off-road parking via a private driveway in front of a secure garage – not street parking, as previously stated.

Recent upgrades include newly installed high-quality UPVC windows and a premium Solidor composite front door, offering enhanced security and excellent energy efficiency for reduced fuel bills.

Inside, the property features a high-quality fitted kitchen with ample storage space and a cooker included. The interior has been freshly refurbished throughout, making it ready for a new tenancy.
