Energy Performance Graph

The figure consists of two side-by-side bar charts. The left chart is titled 'Energy Efficiency Rating' and the right chart is titled 'Environmental Impact (CO₂) Rating'. Both charts compare the performance of Scotland in 2002/01 (represented by horizontal bars) against the EU Directive 2002/91/EC (represented by vertical bars). The charts use a color-coded scale from A (green) to G (red) for energy efficiency and from A (blue) to G (grey) for environmental impact. The EU Directive bars are labeled with 'Very energy efficient - lower running costs' for ratings A-D and 'Not energy efficient - higher running costs' for ratings E-G. The Scotland 2002/01 bars are labeled with 'Very environmentally friendly - lower CO₂ emissions' for ratings A-D and 'Not environmentally friendly - higher CO₂ emissions' for ratings E-G. The Scotland 2002/01 bars are generally lower than the EU Directive bars, indicating better performance in both categories.
