33 Castle Street, Stogursey, TA5 1TG £279,950

A delightful architect designed house offering deceptively spacious, bright and well-proportioned accommodation. Number 33 Castle Street is part of a small development built in approximately 1998. The property has a large living / dining room with feature fire inset. There are three double bedrooms with scope for a forth downstairs or snug. The property has had a number of improvements in recent years to include a new oil fired combi boiler located outside of the property (2023), new bunded tank (2018), new windows and doors (2017). Outside the property is a single garage, allocated parking and landscaped garden which adjoins the Stogursey Brook and is offered to the market with no onward chain.

In brief the property comprises entrance hallway, cloakroom. kitchen, large living room with fire inset and dining area with doors to snug/ bedroom four. Upstairs there is a good size galleried landing with three double bedrooms and a fully equipped family bathroom. From this floor fantastic views can be enjoyed of the surrounding countryside.

The property is situated on Castle Street which is a small street leading off from the centre of the village of Stogursey. The village is dominated by a fine Church and has a number of facilities including village hall, primary school, local shops, post office and public house. The property is well situated for those who commute with a mainline railway station in Bridgwater and access to the M5 motorway via junctions 23 and 24.

An early viewing is essential to fully appreciate this exceptional family home in a desirable location.
