An Exceptional 1906 Detached Family Home in the Prime Location of Roundhay.

This beautifully presented six-bedroom detached home, dating back to 1906, offers the perfect blend of timeless period charm and modern family living. Ideally located just a stone's throw from the vibrant amenities of Street Lane, this impressive property provides generous living space, ideal for entertaining and perfectly suited to a growing family. Offered with no onward chain, this is a rare opportunity to secure a stunning period home in a highly sought-after location.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by a bright and expansive entrance hallway, thoughtfully redesigned as part of a recent, high-quality renovation by the current owners. The attention to detail and respect for the property's heritage are immediately apparent.

The ground floor boasts a formal living room featuring elegant high ceilings, a cast iron fireplace, and large windows that flood the space with natural light. A sleek, refurbished guest WC is also located on this level, finished to a high standard.

At the heart of the home lies a stunning open-plan kitchen and dining area. This space has been completely reconfigured to maximise flow and functionality, now showcasing a premium German kitchen with integrated Neff appliances, a Bora induction hob, and a generous dining area – perfect for family gatherings or entertaining guests. The adjoining living space continues the high-spec feel, complete with a custom-designed media wall and a contemporary, premium Gazco electric fire, creating a warm and inviting focal point.

Arranged over three spacious floors, the first floor comprises three generously sized double bedrooms, most of which feature built-in wardrobes. The principal bedroom is a true standout, with an original cast iron fireplace, a Hulsta branded wardrobe and luxurious en-suite together with an adjacent dressing room. A modern family bathroom with high-quality fixtures and fittings completes this level.

The second floor maintains the home's period elegance, with charming antique features and a stunning skylight integrated into the original roofline, bathing the staircase in natural light. This floor hosts an additional three double bedrooms and a spacious bathroom, ideal for accommodating family members or guests.

Externally, the property continues to impress. The driveway provides ample off-street parking and leads to a garage with electric doors, an EV charge point, and internal access. To the rear, a private, west-facing garden has been thoughtfully designed to capture the best of the evening sun — the perfect setting for al fresco dining and family relaxation.

Additionally, there is a conservatory to maximise natural light and create a seamless connection between the indoors and the garden. Flooded with sunlight throughout the day, this inviting space offers the perfect spot to relax, dine, or entertain while enjoying tranquil views of the outdoors.

The property also benefits from a sizeable, tanked cellar area, providing a dry and secure environment, ideal for storage with potential for further development.

This is a rare opportunity to own a meticulously renovated period home in one of North Leeds' most desirable locations.

ENVIRONS

Roundhay is one of North Leeds' most desirable suburbs, renowned for its leafy surrounds, exceptional schools, and vibrant local community. The conservation area offers a blend of heritage homes, green spaces, and modern amenities, including a variety of boutique shops, cafés, restaurants, and bars along nearby Street Lane.

Roundhay Park — one of the largest urban parks in Europe — offers 700 acres of parkland, lakes, woodland, and gardens, and hosts the popular weekly Parkrun. There are numerous sports facilities nearby, including tennis courts, several championship golf courses, and fitness centres, as well as yoga studios and a bowling green.

Commuter links are excellent, with frequent public transport connections to Leeds City Centre, Harrogate, Wetherby, and York. The national motorway network and Leeds Bradford International Airport are both easily accessible, making this property ideal for both business and leisure.
