For Sale Freehold £285,000

Situated between Dewsbury and Ossett, this charming and well presented 1920s three bedroom detached home offers a wonderful blend of period character and modern living. Boasting three generously sized bedrooms, spacious reception areas, ample off road parking, and a private enclosed rear garden, this is a property that will appeal to a wide range of buyers and is certainly not one to be missed.

The accommodation briefly comprises a welcoming entrance hall with stairs to the first floor landing and access to the living room, downstairs w.c., and the open plan kitchen/diner, which in turn opens into the conservatory overlooking the rear garden. To the first floor, the landing provides access to the loft, as well as three well proportioned bedrooms and the modern family bathroom. Externally, the property enjoys a low maintenance front garden with a concrete driveway providing ample parking for several vehicles, enclosed by brick walling. The driveway extends to the detached garage, which benefits from power, lighting, and an adjoining utility/laundry room. To the rear, there is a generous, low maintenance garden, predominantly paved to provide an ideal space for outdoor dining and entertaining, complemented by mature shrubs and secure timber fencing, making it perfect for families with pets or children.

The location is ideal for the growing family, with local shops and schools within walking distance and a broader range of amenities available in nearby Dewsbury, Ossett, and Wakefield. Excellent public transport links include local bus routes and Dewsbury train station, offering direct connections to major cities, while both the M1 and M62 motorways are within easy reach for those commuting further afield.

This is a delightful family home offering space, character, and convenience in equal measure. An early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the quality and potential of this charming property.
