LOCATION

Dunlop Close is a pleasant cul-de-sac with small play park lying just off the London Road. Sayers common is a convenient village with the Duke of York family run public house, various countryside walks and a community shop/café on the London Road. One of the many benefits of Sayers Common is the immediate access to the A23 which leads to both Brighton and travelling North, the M23 leading to Gatwick Airport and London. The nearby village of Hurstpierpoint has further amenities including both public and private schools. Burgess Hill also has further educational facilities and two main line railway stations (London to Brighton & London to Eastbourne) as well as a popular leisure centre and superstores.
