In Detail

A large split level two bedroom flat, with its own private entrance in the heart of Dulwich Village.
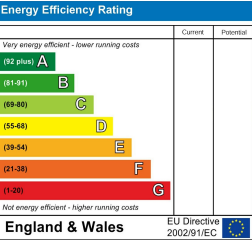

This flat benefits from well-proportioned rooms, high ceilings and natural light, neutrally decorated rooms.

The first floor comprises of a fitted kitchen with room for a table, big reception room, and a family bathroom. One floor up sits two very good sized bedrooms. This flat is perfect for a couple wishing for more space or a young family.

The flat is well located for all Dulwich Village has to offer with its independent shops, cafes and restaurants, in addition to excellent local schools and Dulwich Park.

Nearest transport is located at North Dulwich station, only a short walk away with trains to London Bridge. There are also local bus routes to Herne Hill for Thameslink services and Brixton for the underground.
