The Property

The Hideaway is, as the name suggests, a perfect retreat tucked away at the end of a 216 ft tree lined driveway set within lovely grounds approaching 0.8 of an acre. The bungalow is surrounded by delightful and secluded gardens, hedged to the boundaries with a beautiful porcelain patio and for entertaining there is a superb barbecue house.

Individually designed the bungalow oozes charm and character offering space and comfort in equal measure, with additional living accommodation upstairs. Featuring four excellent size Bedrooms, three Reception Rooms, three Bathrooms and a stunning Living Kitchen designed by Richard Sutton. The Retreat offers the height of luxury with many quality fixtures and fittings, this executive home is ideal for the growing family with large gardens with plenty of outdoor entertaining space and viewing is highly recommended.

On entering through the large porch, one is greeted by a spacious 'L' shaped Hallway, part of which is open plan to the Dining Room where the staircase leads to the first floor. Across the hall there are two further Reception Rooms: the family Lounge accessed through double doors from the hall with a stone fireplace housing the cast iron gas fire and two windows overlooking the rear and close by there is a further Sitting Room overlooking the front.

Undoubtedly the impressive Living Kitchen extends to 22'9 in length and designed by Richard Sutton forms the hub of this outstanding home. Featuring a range of hand painted cabinets in a smart two tone finish incorporating a superb breakfast island, quality Neff appliances including the hide and slide oven and full height fridge freezer, cutaway Franke

1.5 bowl sink and a superb stone tile floor flowing through into the sitting area at one end with its bay window overlooking the patio area and further double glazed patio doors. The kitchen benefits from underfloor heating, a pantry cupboard and plenty of windows proving natural light. Leading off the kitchen is a large Utility Room with matching units and solid wood worktops. Beyond there is a smart designer Cloakroom/W.C.

There are two good size ground floor Bedrooms including the superb principal Bedroom suite (extending to 21'9" in length) with French double glazed doors opening onto the lovely patio area. The bedroom has a large walk-in dressing area and a luxury ensuite Shower Room, designed as a wet room by Richard Sutton with a Duravit suite and a large walk-in shower. There is a good size second Bedroom, currently used as a Study, whilst the large Family Bathroom with its tiled floor and double ended panel bath completes the ground floor accommodation. At first floor level there are two further double Bedrooms and a guest Bathroom with white suite.

Outside the property is just as spectacular as the inside with manicured lawns and pathways, a stunning porcelain patio and a further gravelled garden with idyllic water feature and barbecue house. The Hideaway is approached by an impressive 216ft long sett driveway with mature trees providing hidden parking bays and raised planter borders and there is a double detached garage with electric folding door. An absolutely stunning property which must be seen to be appreciated, in this village location close to local shops and amenities and the village of Humberston and the Cleethorpes seafront is just a few minutes drive away.
