The Property

An exceptional Edwardian detached residence set within approximately 0.52 acres of extensive and mature landscaped gardens. This distinguished family home exudes timeless character and period charm, complemented by an array of outbuildings including stables, a hayloft, former farm buildings and an original summer house. A most charming and cherished residence, home to the same family for over 65 years who experienced many wonderful times with distinguished guests.

Significantly extended in the 1970's to create a large ground floor extension to the main house, featuring a spacious rear entrance hall, with Cloakroom, Utility, Shower Room and further fifth Bedroom/Study.

The elegant accommodation begins through a welcoming Porch and Entrance Hall featuring a graceful return staircase to the first floor, where three main principal Reception Rooms lead off the Hallway each with beautiful splay bay windows, enjoying garden vistas. Including a dual aspect Sitting Room, with an open fire and bookcase and an elegant Dining Room with high ceiling freeze and connecting door to the Kitchen. Across from the Hall is a stunning Drawing Room extending to 24'0" in length and featuring a beautiful marble open fireplace with deep bay and French doors. Whilst a concealed bar is ideal for entertaining. The large breakfast Kitchen provides scope for further improvements, with space for a breakfast table and chairs. Beyond the main Hallway a later rear extension provides a large spacious tiled rear Hallway with Inner Hall, a Cloakroom with w.c, a large Utility Room, fully tiled spacious Shower Room and a versatile Study/fifth Bedroom. The first floor has a spacious Landing extending to 30'9" in length, serving four excellent Bedrooms, two Bathrooms and a study. The Principal Bedroom fitted with a range of built in wardrobes, also benefits from access to an impressive sized Jack and Jill traditional style Bathroom. The three remaining Bedrooms each have built in wardrobes and enjoy views over the gardens. While the main Bathroom features an ornate roll top bath with an Edwardian style fittings and sanitary wear (a real eye catcher).

Outside the property continues to impress with its extensive mature gardens charming outbuildings include two large Garages, and an adjoining stable with a staircase to the hayloft providing additional storage. In addition substantial former farm buildings offer additional storage. The main driveway is accessed from Fairfield Road providing a large driveway leading to the Garage. Whilst there is a secondary access through historic right of passage, via Scartho Road from the rear garden. A beautiful family residence requiring some sympathetic updating featuring original leaded windows, some double glazing and a gas central heating system. Located in this desirable area of Scartho, offered for sale with immediate vacant possession. A hidden gem not to be missed, viewing highly recommended.
