WHERE SERVICE COUNTS

Woodlinken Close, Verwood, BH31

Asking Price £425,000

A delightful, private and established rear garden, that extends to around 75', plenty of parking for cars/motorhome and a detached garage, are just a few features of this impeccably presented, bright and spacious bungalow, that has been extensively improved and enjoyed by the same family for close to twenty-five years.

This impressive and stylish property has well-planned, flexible accommodation, with three double bedrooms (two with built-in wardrobes), served by a re-fitted, modern shower room, a comprehensively fitted and carefully planned kitchen.

The kitchen has been carefully planned to maximise the space on offer and is fitted in a range of sleek, gloss-fronted units with contrasting worktops and metro tiled splashbacks. Built-in appliances include a gas hob with filter hood, matching oven and integrated fridge freezer.

The sitting room enjoys an aspect to the rear over the south-westerly facing gardens via the adjoining conservatory, which has an insulated roof, so is comfortable all year round.

This charming property further benefits from gas central heating, double glazing and plenty of very useful storage.

The rear garden can be accessed by doors from the conservatory and kitchen. They are enclosed by a mixture of fencing, mature trees shrubs and hedging with a generous area of lawn. Outbuildings include a timber summer house with terrace, storage shed and the detached single garage, which is accessible via a drive from the front. To the front is parking for numerous vehicles, with sufficient space for motorhomes, caravans etc.
