Vivian Street, Bristol

DESCRIPTION

Hunters present to the market this charming period home situated in the quiet tucked away Vivian Street in Windmill Hill, a stones throw from the pretty Victoria Park. Offering spacious accommodation spanning over 1200sq ft its sure to prove perfect for a first time purchaser or family looking for a home in this popular spot.

Upon entering the property you are greeted by the entrance hall, which leads through to the open plan living and dining room boasting a bay window, you will also note the exposed wood flooring throughout. There is a study sitting at the rear offering an aspect over the garden, whilst the kitchen opens to the conservatory which also looks over the garden. Upstairs there are two double bedrooms and three piece bathroom, whilst the loft offers a useable loft space and boasts a skylight. Tucked away at the end of Vivian Street the property feels secluded and this is echoed in the garden, it offers a patio area and backs on to established trees which surround the rear.

Vivian Street sits in the vibrant Windmill Hill, an area popular with first time buyers and families alike due to its varied housing stock, proximity to access links and good schooling. This particular home sits just a stones throw from the pretty Victoria Park, the property also sits under a miles walk to North Street, Wapping Wharf and Temple Meads station.
