DESCRIPTION

Hunters are pleased to offer this well presented 1930s home sitting on Bedminster Road. Having been lovingly updated & extended to offer just over 1700sq ft of accommodation by the present vendors the property is sure to prove perfect for any family looking for a well presented, versatile home in this family orientated location.

Internally the ground floor affords a large living room boasting a charming bay window and access to the garden. The kitchen/ diner has been extended and opened up to offer a great sized, beautifully finished entertaining space offering bi-fold doors to the garden. The utility room and downstairs WC are neatly tucked in between the kitchen space and second reception, which is an ideal home office/ play room and could easily be converted to a shower room.

Moving upstairs there are three bedrooms, all of which will comfortably fit double beds, there is also a study/nursery which affords access to the loft room. The largest bedroom sits in the loft conversion and spans the width of the property.

Outside, the rear garden has been bought up to date with a raised patio area off the living room & kitchen, with the remainder being laid with lawn, there is also a raised decked area and single garage with parking for two cars to the rear, whilst the front affords more off street parking.

Bedminster Road is popular among families looking for a larger home within the area due to its access to local schools (Parson St School sits just 0.2 miles away) and access links, Parson Street station is just 0.2 miles away whilst bus links are dotted all along West Street, just a 0.3 mile walk away.
