Bedminster Road, , Bristol, BS3 5NY

Hunters are pleased to offer for sale this beautifully presented 1930s semi detached home sitting along Bedminster Road. Having been thoughtfully updated by the present vendors its sure to prove perfect for any family looking for a charming larger than average family home in the area.

To the ground floor, you are greeted by the handy entrance porch, which opens to the lovely and light hallway. The living space is open plan and affords a living area, which affords bifold doors to the dining area and even a family room sitting in the extension which overlooks the garden. The kitchen has been updated to include modern units, with built in appliances, there is also a handy utility room which sits to the rear.

Moving upstairs the landing is lovely and light and boasts access to the loft, there are two double bedrooms and single third. The bathroom offers a three piece suite to include a walk in shower & separate bath, there is also a separate WC. Outside the rear garden is incredibly private and well stocked, it faces west so makes the most of the afternoon and evening sun, there is also a single garage, and access to the front which boasts off street parking for three cars.

Bedminster Road is popular among families looking for a larger home within the area due to its access to local schools such as Victoria Park & Southville primary and access links, Parson Street station is just 0.2 miles away whilst bus links are dotted all along West Street, just a 0.3 mile walk away.
