

Flat 19 Brockhampton Park, Brockhampton, Nr. Cheltenham GL54 5SP

A spacious one bedroom second floor flat located in a wonderfully tranquil rural setting forming part of a stunning 17th century Cotswold mansion surrounded by beautiful rolling countryside.

This well-proportioned second floor flat has been improved by the present owners and features far reaching views to the front and the rear.

Upon entering this historic building, the grandeur and proportions are immediately evident, with a large reception hall, original returning staircase and a quite stunning communal sitting room.

The front door of the flat leads into a 'L' shaped entrance hall with views to the front and which provides access to all rooms. The sitting room, to the rear of the flat features tall wide window providing views over the valley, lake and bridge beyond. The double bedroom with fitted wardrobes and storage is situated quietly to the rear of the building. Both the bathroom and kitchen are well appointed with modern fittings.

The majority of the flat has 10' ceilings contributing to the property's spacious feel with the sitting room and bedroom having feature cast iron 'arts and crafts' style fireplaces.

As you enter Brockhampton Park, a double allocated car parking space (marked T) can be found on the right hand side. Beyond is Brockhampton Park House itself, sitting in approximately 8 acres of beautiful communal grounds including a lake with bridge all surrounded by rolling countryside. The lawns are divided by paths which provide access to an attractive summerhouse. To the front of the house, the grounds have been terraced and are currently planted as a summer meadow. In addition there is a partly walled orchard with herb garden and a clothes drying area.
