Property Description

Occupying an enviable position in the heart of Old Town, this attractive, bay fronted terrace home has been comprehensively refurbished and remodelled by the current owners, to now offer a wealth of spacious and well appointed accommodation over four levels. The blend of modern refinement and period charm works exceptionally well and should appeal to a wide mix of buyers' needs.

Being set back from the road beyond an enclosed fore garden, the internal accommodation in brief comprises: Entrance hall with part tiled and flagstone flooring, period style radiator and decorative panelling. Entering the sitting room, you are greeted by a stone fireplace with herringbone brick relief and stone hearth. There is a bay window to front and oak flooring throughout. Continuing through to a dining room, with bespoke storage, flagstone flooring and access to a useful cellar. The original sashes to the front of the property have been upgraded with Heritage double glazing.

A glazed, inner lobby provides access to a WC and Utility cupboard and links the house to a superb, 1909 breakfast kitchen. This space is filled with natural light through an expanse of opening glass to rear and a glazed roof lantern. The kitchen itself is beautifully appointed with a range of storage, integrated appliances, boiling water tap, and marble work surfaces with waterfall edges. There is ample space for a relaxed seating or occasional dining area.

To the first floor, a central landing provides access to two spacious and well presented bedrooms, a stylish family bathroom with Burlington suite and separate shower room. The third and main bedroom is located to the second floor, further boasting a Juliet balcony to rear.

Externally, there is a pleasant, due west facing walled garden, with a delightful sunken terrace for alfresco dining and raised beds and lawn, with central pathway leading to a versatile outbuilding, which has been divided to provide a home office/hobbies rooms and separate stores. Parking is on road and permits can be applied for via Warwick District Council at a cost of £25 per annum.

Location

Stratford-upon-Avon is internationally famous as the birthplace of William Shakespeare and home to the Royal Shakespeare Theatre. It attracts almost four million visitors a year who come to see its rich variety of historic buildings. Stratford is also a prosperous riverside market town which provides South Warwickshire with a wide range of national and local stores, fine restaurants, a good choice of public and private schools and excellent sporting and recreational amenities. These include golf courses, swimming pool and leisure centre, race course, the nearby north Cotswold Hills as well as the River Avon for anglers and boating enthusiasts.

The town is well served by trunk road/motorway and rail communications with regular train services to Birmingham Moor Street and London Marylebone (via Warwick Parkway/Leamington Spa stations), whilst junction 15 of the M40 motorway is situated within about 15 minutes drive. Birmingham International Airport, the National Exhibition and Agricultural Centres and International Convention Centre are all located in under one hour's travel whilst other well known business centres including Warwick & Leamington Spa, Coventry, Evesham, Redditch and Solihull are all readily accessible.
