The Property

A select gated development of three new bespoke homes, nestled within a quiet backwater setting with open rural views to rear. These individually designed homes boast a wealth of space and will be finished to an exceptional standard throughout. The flow of accommodation has been designed to appeal to a mixed demographic of buyer, with great emphasis being given to creating larger living spaces, principally orientated towards the westerly rural aspect to rear. Two of the properties offer four bedrooms and there is a single three bedroom home, all centred around a delightfully landscaped courtyard setting, which enjoy a sense of space and openness.

Entering the development via a private drive, you proceed through remotely operated electric gates, into a pleasant courtyard setting. Each of the properties have a clearly defined boundaries. There is ample parking and oak framed canopied entrances to each property.
