The Property

This remarkable three-bedroom residence from the 1930s is situated on a tranquil street in western Stratford.

Having been extended over the years, it now offers more than 1700 sq ft of living space along with a lovely south-west facing rear garden.

The house is positioned away from the road, providing parking space for multiple vehicles in front.

The garage, which runs parallel to the house, spans the entire length of the property and grants access to the garden.

There is also the potential to convert part or all of the garage (subject to obtaining the necessary consents) to create additional living space on the ground floor.

Currently, the house comprises a living room, an open-plan kitchen/dining area, a utility room, and a cloakroom on the ground floor, while the first floor features three bedrooms, one of which has an en-suite, and a family bathroom.

At the rear of the garden, beneath a delightful wisteria archway, there are two spacious sheds available for extra storage.

The Location

Stratford-upon-Avon is internationally famous as the birthplace of William Shakespeare and home to the Royal Shakespeare Theatre. It attracts almost four million visitors a year who come to see its rich variety of historic buildings. Stratford is also a prosperous riverside market town which provides South Warwickshire with a wide range of national and local stores, fine restaurants, a good choice of public and private schools and excellent sporting and recreational amenities. These include golf courses, swimming pool and leisure centre, race course, the nearby north Cotswold Hills as well as the River Avon for anglers and boating enthusiasts.

The town is well served by trunk road/motorway and rail communications with regular train services to Birmingham Moor Street and London Marylebone (via Warwick Parkway/Leamington Spa stations), whilst junction 15 of the M40 motorway is situated within about 15 minutes drive. Birmingham International Airport, the National Exhibition and Agricultural Centres and International Convention Centre are all located in under one hour's travel whilst other well known business centres including Warwick & Leamington Spa, Coventry, Evesham, Redditch and Solihull are all readily accessible.
