The Property

Located in the heart of Broom, a popular established riverside village, boasting easy access to the plentiful local amenities and those available in nearby Alcester and Stratford upon Avon. Having been extensively refurbished and remodelled by the current owners, including substantial extensions, this detached single storey home now offers the potential for multi-generational living by way of a self-contained studio annexe, whilst occupying a generous mature plot that in all extends to approximately 0.5 acre. Viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate the standard and scale of accommodation on offer.

Being set back from the road beyond a generous gravel driveway providing ample parking for several cars and access to the internal accommodation. Entering the property, you are greeted by an inviting hall, with panelled doors off. The sitting room is a generous space that enjoys dual aspect windows, French doors to the garden and an inset fire providing a cosy focal point. There is a separate study, serving as the ideal home office, hobbies room or third bedroom. Continuing into the impressive open plan family kitchen and dining space, this versatile room is filled with natural light through an expanse of glazing and French doors to the garden. Providing three zones, in part comprising a well appointed kitchen with solid wood doors, contrasting granite worksurfaces and a bank of integrated appliances, a breakfast bar and seating area and dining space.

There is a separate utility / laundry room from here you can access the double garage.

Passing a well equipped principal bathroom, you progress to an inner hall, with two double bedrooms, the main boasting a modern en-suite shower room.

Continuing into the annexe space, there is an inner lobby with independent access to the side, and a generous open plan living / studio space, which is semi open plan to a well equipped kitchen and modern shower room. This provides a degree of seclusion and serves as an ideal space for guests or a dependant relative.

Externally, the property sits well within its 0.5 acre plot, with a beautifully manicured garden to rear, laid mainly to lawn with an expanse of mixed trees and shrubs throughout. A generous paved terrace links the reception spaces and a separate enclosed courtyard services the annexe. The main garden is divided by a post and rail fence, were beyond, a further extensive lawn is flanked by secure timber and mesh aviaries and a substantial timber lodge, serving as a great overflow space to the main house, with useability all year round due to having the benefit of light, power and remote heating. To the front of the property, a double garage with electrically operated door to front, provides secure enclosed parking.

The Location

The village of Broom lies approximately 7 miles to the west of Stratford upon Avon, within the village there are two public houses, and a village hall full of clubs and activities, Ragley Hall and Hillers Farm Shop/cafe is within a short distance. 1 mile from Broom is the thriving village of Bidford-on-Avon which has amenities for everyday requirements including primary schools, shops, church, inns, and garage and is well located for easy reach to many surrounding centres and schools.
