Situation

Kings Road, Herne Bay is located near the centre of town, which offers a range of local amenities within walking distance, including cafes, restaurants, independent shops, nurseries, schools, leisure and sports facilities, including a swimming pool, and cultural attractions, such as the local museum, King's Hall events space, and a cinema. At the end of this short road, at the seafront, you will find the delightful Waltrap Gardens, the pier to the left, and the bandstand to the right. Herne Bay has many areas to walk and explore from Memorial Park to a long stretch of coastal parkland extending to Reculver Towers, not that you will want to go far with the beach on your doorstep. A coastal cycle route connects Whitstable to Reculver. The mainline railway station is a 12min. (0.6m) walk away, with high-speed links to London in 1h20m as well as a range of regional destinations, which can also be reached by bus with stops along the High Street. The cathedral city of Canterbury is only 8 miles away and 5 miles to the quaint fishing town of Whitstable. Road links to the A299 are excellent for quick transits to London, Margate, or a ferry to the continent at Dover.
