Local Area

Getting to know your local surroundings now and you will find just up the road from your new home there is a local shop for your morning papers and a pint of milk and just a short walk up the road from here there is an absolutely cracking Fish and Chip shop for that weekend treat!

For families with young children, you could not be better placed for all your needs! There is a large playing field close by for kids of all ages along with a great selection of local schooling all within a short walk ranging from pre-school to secondary and for further educational years there are regular buses into Canterbury that run from stops that are stone's throw from you. These same buses also offer links into both Herne bay town center and Whitstable which have a good selection of well-known high street names and quirky boutiques.

Just to top things off nicely the fantastic seafront of Herne bay is only a short drive from your new home and here you will find a great selection of cafes and restaurants, ice cream parlours and family arcades to help fill your summer time with. The only thing left to do now is to come and have a look for yourself!
