Rules on letting this property

You may not be able to let this property.

This property has an energy rating of G. The landlord cannot grant a tenancy to new or existing tenants, unless an exemption has been registered.

From 1 April 2023, landlords will not be allowed to continue letting a non-domestic property on an existing lease if that property has an energy rating of F or G.

You can read guidance for landlords on the regulations and exemptions.

Properties can be let if they have an energy rating from A+ to E. The recommendation report sets out changes you can make to improve the property's rating.

Energy efficiency rating for this property

This property's current energy rating is G.

Properties are given a rating from A+ (most efficient) to G (least efficient).

Properties are also given a score. The larger the number, the more carbon dioxide (CO2) your property is likely to emit.

Contacting the assessor and accreditation scheme

This EPC was created by a qualified energy assessor.

If you are unhappy about your property's energy assessment or certificate, you can complain to the assessor directly.

If you are still unhappy after contacting the assessor, you should contact the assessor's accreditation scheme.

Accreditation schemes are appointed by the government to ensure that assessors are qualified to carry out EPC assessments.
