ROGER HEMMING'S VIEW...

This is an interesting two bedroom detached bungalow and it occupies an elevated spot on Honiton's Pine Park prime residential development. It's surrounded by similar detached homes and it has far-reaching views towards open countryside from both front and rear. The gas centrally heated and uPVC double-glazed living space has an entrance porch leading through to a traditional hallway and the principal rooms. There's a smart fitted kitchen with some integrated appliances and a comfortable living room with a handy woodburner. The garage has been professionally converted in the past to provide a large en-suite bathroom for the main bedroom, there's also a second double bedroom and another bathroom. We're really impressed with all this property has to offer, it's a great location, so when would you like to take a look?

"We appreciate that the garage of this property has been converted into additional living space, however, we believe it wouldn't be too difficult to either restore it as a garage, or to perhaps even extend forwards to form a new garage."

WHAT THE AGENT SAYS...

OUTSIDE

Perhaps one of the most attractive features of 30 Hill Crescent are the large, easily maintained gardens and the double-glazed conservatory, which stretches across the majority of the rear of the bungalow. To the front is a level driveway, which could easily provide an off-road parking area for a caravan or motorhome.

Honiton has a fast road link to Exeter and Junction 29 of the M5 Motorway. The town also has a railway station on the Exeter to London Waterloo line. The coastal resorts of Lyme Regis, Sidmouth and Seaton are all less than half an hour's drive.

(AGENT'S NOTE: We're told that the photovoltaic solar panels at the property are wholly owned and are not subject to any lease agreement.)
